India Trail

LADIES ONLY

Nagaland - 7 days and 6 nights

An experience designed for women travelers who are keen to explore Nagaland and get a taste of culture, history and food with some arts and crafts shopping.

Day 1: Arrival

Itinerary:

- Your transport will pick you up from Dimapur Airport and drive you to your hotel in Kohima. [If you want to stop for a quick bite at Dimapur, please ask your driver and he will take you to a restaurant near the airport before you begin your journey.]
- Check in to your hotel in Kohima.
- Dinner is organized at a restaurant in Kohima where we will meet you and discuss your plans for the next few days.

Day 2: The Kohima Walk

Highlights: A short guided walk around Kohima town where you can explore the local market and shops followed by our signature World War II tour at the Commonwealth War Cemetery to learn how a fierce battle between the Allies and Japanese along with the Indian National Army impacted the course of the World's history.

Itinerary:

- Start the tour with a coffee at the famous Heritage Bungalow.
- Take a short walk down to the WWII Commonwealth Cemetery for our signature battle field tour.
- Have lunch at a café in town followed by a visit to the local market. [For the more adventurous, we take you to see the exotic food that the Nagas are famous for.]
- Post lunch, you can visit the Kohima Cathedral or the State Museum.
- Dinner at a local home.

Day 3: The Khonoma Village Experience

Highlights: A short guided walk around Khonoma Village. You can spend the day exploring the village and meet the locals as they go about their daily chores. You can utilize this day to learn of the history of the village and the folklores surrounding it. You can take a walk down the terraced fields and understand the local system of growing paddy. You can also visit the government school and have an interaction with the students there. You can further hike up to the alder forests of Khonoma to the Mithun feeding station and try your hand at feeding salt to one of these bulls

Itinerary:

- Start the day with breakfast at your hotel and then drive to Khonoma village where our guide will meet you. [The drive will approximately take an hour from Kohima.]
- Take a guided walk through the village followed by lunch at Dovipie inn. [If you are interested, you can take a walk down to the terraced fields of the village.]
- Post lunch, you can visit the Mithun Sanctuary where you can spot the local Bison from where you can further head up to the Dzülakie area for a picnic tea.
- Return to Kohima in the evening. Dinner at the hotel.

Day 4: The Dzükou Valley Climb

Highlights: A day trek to Dzükou valley [located at an altitude of approximately 2,450 meters above sea level] which is a stunning grassland surrounded by hill tops. The trek up has a couple of approaches – each with a varying level of intensity and you can choose the one that best suits your fitness level. If you are a more avid trekker, we could offer you a trek up to Japfü peak, at approximately 3,100 meters above sea level or we could send you on a shorter easier walk to Pulie Badze peak which is a short 45 minute walk from the base camp. All three options have spectacular views of the hill ranges.

Traditional Dinner at Camp David: We take you on a short drive out of Kohima to our Camp Site, where you can experiment with some locally made Naga cuisine. Don't worry vegetarians; we have special treats for you! Depending on the weather, we can set out a nice bonfire for you. If you would like to try the locally made rice beer, we can have some brought for you.

Itinerary:

- Start your day with an early breakfast and then depart for your hike to Dzükou Valley/ Japfü peak/ Pulie Badze.
- Start your hike to the chosen location.
- Have a picnic lunch at the location and head back for Camp David.
- Return to the start point where your transport will be waiting for you with some hot tea.
- End the evening with a traditional dinner over a bon fire at Camp David.

Day 5: Back to roots- –A day trip to Phüsachodü Village

Highlights: An overnight trip to Phüsachodü Village where you will have the opportunity to explore an interior village of Nagaland. Here, you will get to experience the rich culture, traditions, customs and life in a Naga village while staying in the comfort of a modern bungalow. This is our most highly rated experience by clients – you can't miss it.

Itinerary:

- Start your day with a leisurely breakfast at your hotel and then drive to the village. [The drive is approximately three hours.]
- Your guide will meet you at the village and take you for a guided walk through the village where you will learn of the history and culture of the village.
- End the walk with a short cultural programme performed by the youth of the village.
- A simple dinner will be organized at a home stay in the village.
- Your stay tonight will be at a guest house in the village
